

Open Circle of Men

Mankind Project San Diego presents an opportunity to sit in a circle of men for the timeless and ageless purpose of becoming better men, for the purpose of becoming the man we were meant to be and/or want to be.

We welcome honesty, authenticity, fear, anger, sadness, joy, trust, and mistrust. We honor all of what a man brings to the circle.

If this sounds inviting, scary, weird, wonderful...welcome.

We have all been there...
